STATINTL

	·
APT11 15, 1952 ( > '
19, 1992 W
$
Mr. George G. Carey, Assistant Director Central Intelligence Authority
2h30 Eye Street, N.W. Washington, D.C.
My dear Mr. Carey:
taran da araba da ar
I have just completed a telephone call from my friend, Assist Postmaster General Osborne Pearson. He has explained the situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.	iant
" " White was voiced out of the Carrier of the control of the control of the carrier of the carr	11
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wi send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wi me, possibly we can come to a conclusion that will become	11
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wis send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wis me, possibly we can come to a conclusion that will keep us frhaving any Court action.	11
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wis send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wis possibly we can come to a conclusion that will keep us frhaving any Court action.  I remain,	11
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wis send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wis me, possibly we can come to a conclusion that will keep us frhaving any Court action.  I remain,  Sincerely yours,	11
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wis send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wis me, possibly we can come to a conclusion that will keep us frhaving any Court action.  I remain,  Sincerely yours,	th com
situation to me, and the words of General Bedell Smith.  I now understand with what we are to be faced. So, if you wis send the necessary finance group to go over this situation wis me, possibly we can come to a conclusion that will keep us frhaving any Court action.  I remain,  Sincerely yours,	th com